POSTAL REGULATORY COMMISSION
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY

20268-0001

Dear Sir,

I appeal your decision to close the Lafayette Post Office, 42254.

You stated we are an unincorporated community. We were incorporated as a city in 1836. We have a mayor and city council and 165 residents.

You also stated we will have a village post office. How so? Our 2 businesses (a hardware & a restaurant) have declined a village post office.

Our city should maintain its USPS
instead of picking up city mail 7 miles away at a crossroads location.

Please reconsider. Enclosed, find 131 signatures of people who will be directly affected.

Office of PAGR

Respectfully,

Edmund Francis
Mayor, City of Lafayette
